DULL DAY UPON STOCK MARKET

Approach of Three Days' Holiday Causes Dealers to Close Contracts.

NEW YORK, September 4.-The the imminence of a three days' holito the closing up of contracts by the traders, who are averse to the risk of a long period in which stocks cannot be dealt in, while some sudden event.

a long period in which stocks cannot be dealt in, while some sudden event might change the speculative situation. Not only the Stock Exchange, but the commercial exchanges generally are to be closed in this country to-merrow as an extension of the Labor Day holiday on Monday.

The day's dullness was the result. Foreign markets gave evidence of a subsidence of the uneasiness caused by the Moroccan situation, Preliminary estimates of the week's currency inovement indicated a falling off in shipments to New York, but not yet sufficient to turn the tide of the movement in favor of the interior.

The commodities markets were dull and featureless under the influence of the approaching holiday, and no important deductions were drawn from them of the progress of the crops. There was a considerable demand for foreign exchange, which gave early firmness to that market.

The Foremost Consideration

in banking should be the protection of the depositor. Our long and successful career of forty-three years, our modern methods, our large capital and surplus, together with the reputation of our directors and officers as experienced business men of unquestioned character and ability, is the protection WE offer. The small depositor receives the same courteous treatment as the large one.
